DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR.

"HOURS OF WORK ACT, 1923."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of the following Orders made by the Board of Adjustment under the provisions of the "Hours of Work Act, 1923":—

Having regard to the nature and conditions of the industrial undertakings hereinafter mentioned, the condition of employment and welfare of employees, the Board of Adjustment after inquiry, held pursuant to the "Hours of Work Act, 1923," and subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, hereby exempts to the extent hereinafter stated from the provisions of section 3 of the said Act, the industrial undertakings and workers engaged therein, hereinafter mentioned, namely:—

1. All workers employed in sawmills, planing mills and shingle mills in the district east of the Cascade Mountains shall be permitted to work one hour per day in excess of the limit prescribed by section 3 of the Act; the total hours worked not to exceed 54 per week.

2. All engineers, firemen, and oilers engaged in sawmills, planing mills, and shingle mills, in charge of steam plants operating on a one-shift basis, in the district east of the Cascade Mountains, shall be allowed to work further overtime to the extent of one and one-half hours per day to cover preparatory and complementary work in addition to the said 54 hours per week.

3. All workers employed in the lumber and shingle manufacturing industries as operators of launches; all persons engaged in booming operations; all workers engaged as operators of transportation systems in connection with shipping, and planing operations in connection with shipping, necessary to fill urgent orders.

4. All workers employed in ship repair plants, engineering works, machine shops, foundries, welding plants, sheet metal works, belt works, saw-works, and all like plants doing repair work, when engaged on urgent repair work which must of necessity be done, in order that other industries shall not be seriously handicapped in their operations.

5. All bakers employed in the baking industry shall be permitted to work ten (10) hours per man per month in excess of forty-eight (48) hours per week and all bakery salesmen or deliverymen twenty-six (26) hours per man per month in excess of 48 hours per week.

6. All workers engaged in industries whose shipping operations are of an intermittent nature shall be permitted to work such overtime as may be necessary to enable urgent shipping orders to be executed.

7. That part of the undertaking of the West Kootenay Power and Light Company, Limited, at Lower Bonnington, B.C., being the construction work in progress in connection therewith, until the 1st day of February, 1925.

8. All workers employed by The Laminated Materials, Limited, of New Westminster, as veneer operatives, cement spreaders, and those engaged in the finishing department, are exempt from the provisions of section 3 of the Act until the 6th day of March, 1925.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO
PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act—shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any execeptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 30th, 1922.

W. H. LANGLEY,
6382-se13 Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 7805.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "P. R. Brown & Sons, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is twenty thousand dollars, divided into two hundred shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, under the style of "P. R. Brown & Sons," and all or any of the assets or liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 4 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification;

(b.) To carry on business of every description as brokers, real-estate and insurance agents, promoters, mortgage-brokers, financial agents, or any business which may seem to the Company capable of being carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(c.) To act as agent, in collecting rent and interest, the general management of buildings, estates, and other property, in lending and investing money for others, and for any and all purposes:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, timber licences, timber leases, timber lands, mines and mineral claims, situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein and any rights over or connected therewith, and to subdivide any such land, and to prepare building-sites, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient:

(e.) To build, construct, reconstruct, alter, improve, decorate, furnish, and maintain dwellings, apartment-houses, hotels, lodging-houses, flats, stores, offices, factories, warehouses, and other buildings and works and conveniences of every kind:

(f.) To lease, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite leases, conveyances, and assurances in respect thereof:

(g.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Company and to promote the objects and business of the said Company:

(h.) To receive on deposit title deeds, stocks, bonds, mortgages, and debentures or other securities:

(i.) To advance and lend money upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, with power to take security for the repayment of the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise any property or assets which may be pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same:

(j.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company or otherwise:

(k.) To subscribe for, underwrite, offer for public subscription, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, dispose of, and deal in, shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any Government, country, municipality, authority, corporation, or company:

(l.) To invest and deal with moneys of the Company upon such security and in such manner and upon such terms as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company:

(o.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the payment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any parts of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(p.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(q.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise), or any companies, corporations, or persons that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, corporation, companies, or persons any rights, licences, privileges, and concessions, charters, contracts, and rights which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, licences, privileges, and concessions:

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration or as any part thereof any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(t.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in paragraphs (a) to (t), inclusive, of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraphs, be deemed to be independent and primary objects, and shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or any inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

To adopt such means of making known the property and purposes of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by the publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(cc.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands and rights or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual companies or persons, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and in the case of shares either wholly or partly paid up, as the consideration for any such sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, or dealing, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(dd.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(ee.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(ff.) To take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of shares or stock in any other company:

(gg.) To draw, accept, and make, and to endorse, discount, and negotiate, bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(hh.) To lend or advance moneys to such parties, whether individuals or corporate bodies, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons and corporations having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or undertakings of any such person or corporation:

(ii.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stocks, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(jj.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(kk.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized, either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents for any other company or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(ll.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(mm.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(nn.) To do all such things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company:

(oo.) Nothing herein contained shall be construed as conferring upon the Company any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." 8575-ja8

(r.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands and rights over or connected with timber or other lands belonging to or in which the Company is interested:

(s.) To invest, lend, and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and upon such security as may from time to time be determined:

(t.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(u.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(r.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise, with any persons or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(w.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to these of this Company:

(x.) To promote any company or companies for the purposes of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(y.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(z.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(aa.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bonus, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(bb.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital:

(cc.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(dd.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(ee.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(ff.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(gg.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(hh.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall in nowise be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. 8587-ja8 storage, water, gas, electric light, telephone, telegraphic, radio, power-supply, and all other works and conveniences of any public utility or any part thereof:

(5.) To design and furnish drawings, plans, and specifications in connection with any or all of the foregoing buildings, structures, works, and conveniences, and in general to do all things proper or convenient to be done in or incidental to a general engineering and contracting business, subject to the proviso contained in paragraph (2) above:

(6.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of and dealers in apparatus, equipment, supplies, goods, wares, produce, and merchandise of every description, and of all other things whatsoever required for or capable of being used in connection with electrical, mechanical, chemical, heat, construction, or general engineering and contracting, and to import, export, trade, distribute, store, sell, and otherwise deal in such things, whether as manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, jobbers, importers, exporters, commission agents, manufacturers' agents, or otherwise:

(7.) To carry on the business of suppliers of electricity for the purposes of light, heat, sound, motive power, or otherwise:

(8.) To buy or otherwise acquire, sell, convey, hold, and deal with stocks, shares, bonds, and debentures of every kind and nature:

(9.) To build, operate, and acquire, purchase, or lease steamers, tugs, barges, scows, and other vessels or any interest or share therein; to let out, hire, or charter the same, and to carry on the business of proprietors of docks, wharves, jetties, and piers:

(10.) To record, purchase, or otherwise acquire water and water records, privileges, and grants, and to develop and turn the same to account, and to construct and maintain power-works, hydraulic works, electrical works, and tramways, and to utilize, sell, or otherwise, dispose of power and energy:

(11.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any mines, quarries, mining rights, and mineralized lands, whether metalliferous or non-metalliferous, or any interest therein, and to explore, work, develop, and turn to account the same:

(12.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patent, trade-mark, licence, commission, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to the use of any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of the property, rights, or information so acquired, or to vend any or all of the articles covered by such patent, trade-mark, licence, commission, or the like:

(13.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees, or commissions which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(14.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise real and personal property of all kinds, including lands and hereditaments of any tenure or description, rights over or connected with land, buildings, factories, plants, mills, shops, warehouses, stock-in-trade, mortgages, charges, options, book debts, and claims, or any interest therein, and to hold, manage, work, develop, and turn to account such real and personal property, and to improve the same, as may seem expedient, and in particular to build, construct, alter, decorate, furnish, operate, and maintain buildings, works, and conveniences of any nature whatsoever, and to subdivide, sell, agree to sell, transfer, exchange, rent, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of, encumber, charge, or deal with such real and personal property or any interest therein:

(15.) To pay the consideration for any property acquired or work done or contract entered into in pursuance of any of the powers contained herein, either wholly or in part by fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(16.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(17.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property, real or personal, belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and for such purpose to grant and execute such documents as may be required to complete such security:

(18.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property and rights, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(19.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(20.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(21.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or carrying on any business which can be conveniently carried on by the Company in connection with its own business, or which may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(22.) To purchase or otherwise acquire shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or to amalgamate with such company:

(23.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(24.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits or losses, for union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person, firm, or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and other securities of any such person, firm, or company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(25.) To draw, make, accept, issue, endorse, discount, execute, and transfer bills of exchange, promissory notes, drafts, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, share and stock certificates, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(26.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of Canada or in any other country, and to accept rights and powers to carry on its business therein:

(27.) To do all or any of the things set out above as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(28.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(29.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph. S587-ja8

(c.) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same, either conditionally or otherwise, and to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(d.) To make advances and lend money upon the security of real or personal property of every description or upon personal security:

(e.) To carry on the business of mercantile, financial, investment, mortgage, real estate, insurance, and general agents and brokers:

(f.) To carry out any transactions or operations whatsoever which may be lawfully undertaken and carried out by capitalists, brokers, merchants, underwriters, financiers, or concessionaires, and to carry on a general financial business and general financial operations of all kinds in any part of the world, and to undertake or aid in any enterprise:

(g.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act, 1914," or any statutory amendment or modification thereof, and to acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form or power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(j.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash or fully paid shares or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing or guaranteeing the placing of the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company:

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company:

(l.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(m.) To sell and dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(q.) To draw, accept, and make, and to endorse, discount, and negotiate, bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(r.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of, or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person having dealings with the Company in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(s.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(t.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(u.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(v.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause. [L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT.

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of and dealers in, or salesmen and agents for manufacturers and dealers in, vacuum-cleaning machines or other like appliances and machines manufactured from wood, metal, cloth, or partly of wood, partly of metal, and partly of cloth, or any combinations of wood, metal, and cloth:

(b.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any interests in any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or nonexclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention in relation to vacuum or other cleaning machines or any other machines of a like nature, or of any apparatus or appliances in connection with it, or generally any invention which may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt with:

(c.) To carry on the manufacture and sale of vacuum or other cleaning machines, and generally to carry on the business of manufacturers, buyers, sellers of, dealers in, brokers, and salesmen of all kinds of vacuum or other cleaning machines, and all appurtenances or appliances whatsoever which can be used in connection with vacuum or other cleaning machines or any machines whatsoever of like nature:

(d.) And, without limiting the generality of anything contained in this memorandum, to buy, sell, and deal in, import, export, act as agents for distributors of or salesmen of all products, articles, and appliances manufactured, sold, or dealt in in connection with Vacuette Suction Cleaners or any other products whatsoever of the persons, firms, or corporations manufacturing Vacuette Suction Cleaners or any products or appliances used in connection therewith:

(e.) To carry on all or any of the business of wholesale and retail dealers, importers, exporters, and manufacturers of and dealers in vacuum-cleaning machines and the appurtenances and appliances used in connection therewith, and all articles of every description usually dealt in, purchased, or sold by manufacturers or brokers of cleaning-machines:

(f.) To adopt such means of making known the products dealt in by the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books, periodicals, and literature of any kind, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(g.) To construct, maintain, and alter any building or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise any real estate or leasehold property or any interest therein, with or without houses or other buildings and erections thereon, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(j.) To carry on any business incidental to the full and complete use and enjoyment of the properties and works of the Company or the manufacture and products thereof, and such other business as may be deemed expedient and conducive to the interests of the Company:

(k.) To remunerate by the payment of commission or otherwise any person or company by fully paid-up shares or cash, or partly in either manner, for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business; provided, however, that any such commission shall not at any time exceed a maximum of seventy-five (75) per cent. of the par value of the shares or debentures or securities so placed; and to pay out of the funds of the Company all costs and expenses of and incidental to the incorporation, organization, and flotation of this Company:

(l.) To acquire by original grant, purchase, or otherwise howsoever any Acts of Parliament, orders, grant, rights, privileges, and concessions, and to enter into contracts or arrangements with any municipal or other body, corporation, company, or person for the grant of any rights, privileges, or concessions:

(m.) To improve, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(n.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over, or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(o.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(p.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or to acquire an interest in, and to acquire, hold, and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(q.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures and debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part consideration for the purchase of any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(r.) To buy or otherwise acquire in any way, and hold, sell, or deal with or in, any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(s.) To procure the registration or legal recognition of the Company in any part of the world:

(t.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(u.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee or be liable for the contracts or obligations of any such person or persons, firm or corporation, or for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligation:

(v.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking or any part thereof, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement or joint adventure with any company or person:

(w.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, provincial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order or concession to others, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(x.) To distribute among the members or any class of members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(y.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(z.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or Company as trustee or agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(aa.) To do all such other things as are, in the opinion of the directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(o.) To carry on the business of logging contractors and contractors for the construction, repair, development, and carrying-out of public and private works:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money by mortgage, or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, or in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and for the purposes aforesaid to charge all or any of the Company's property or assets, present and future, including its uncalled capital, and collaterally or further to secure any securities of the Company by a trust deed or other assurance:

(q.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To lend money either with or without security and generally to such persons, including directors and members of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit:

(s.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(t.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of Canada or in any country, and to accept rights and powers to carry on its business therein:

(w.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(x.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(y.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(z.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(zl.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

It is hereby declared and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect, with such (if any) modifications as may be agreed upon, an agreement in the terms of a draft agreement already prepared, and for the purpose of identification initialed by A. Aitken Gray, and expressed to be made between Citizens Realty Syndicate and this Company, and to acquire the property and rights and to carry on the business therein referred to in such manner as the directors of the Company may consider expedient:

(b.) To obtain options over and take or acquire by purchase, lease, grant, licence, exchange, assignment, or otherwise howsoever, and either to exercise such options or allow same to lapse, and to hold, or with a view to resell, lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property, timber licences, limits, and leases, claims, berths, concessions, booming-grounds, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, and other easements, rights, and privileges whatsoever in any part of the world, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein which may be required or be considered convenient for any purpose of the Company, or which may be considered capable of being profitably dealt in or made by the Company:

(c.) To acquire by original grant, purchase, or otherwise howsoever any rights, privileges, and concessions, and to enter into contracts or arrangements with any municipal or other body, corporation, company, or person for the granting of any rights, privileges, or concessions:

(d.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company or any part thereof, and for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(e.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on, or authorized or intending to carry on, any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise:

(g.) To buy or otherwise acquire in any way and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(h.) To procure the registration or legal recognition of the Company in any part of the world:

(i.) To borrow or raise money and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract or indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company, by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(j.) To lend money to, and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(k.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase

(for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company or person:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as the Company may from time to time determine:

(m.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(n.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold and deal in the shares, stock, or securities of any such company:

(o.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any other person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority.

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(1.) To loan money with or without security, or take as security therefor bills of exchange, promissory notes, mortgages of real estate or any interest therein, or on leasehold or freehold property of any kind, and on goods, chattels, or any interest in any goods and chattels, bills of sale, and conditional sales agreements, and on goods and chattels in such manner as the directors shall see fit:

(2.) To carry on the business of financial agents, brokers, and dealers in property of all kinds, real and personal, and generally to carry on a brokerage business in all its branches, and to act as agent or attorney for any persons, firms, estates, and provincial, extra-provincial, or foreign corporations engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business:

(3.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein:

(4.) To promote, underwrite, or to offer for public subscription any shares or stock in the capital of, or debentures or debenture stock or other securities of, or otherwise to establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any company, association, undertaking, or public or private body in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(5.) To invest the capital of the Company in and to deal with or to act as agents for the sale of shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations, or other security of any company or association (British, colonial, or foreign):

(6.) To take, make, execute, or enter into any contracts, or to carry on, prosecute, and to defend legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements, and schemes, and to do all other acts, matters, and things which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection of the Company as holders of or interested in any such investments and securities as aforesaid:

(7.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels, and effects of this Company or any part thereof for such consideration as this Company may think fit, either for cash or shares, debentures or securities of any other company operating in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether or not the objects of such company are altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(8.) To form, organize, promote, and subsidize companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(9.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated operating or to operate wholly or partly in the Province of British Columbia, and to subscribe for, accept, and hold shares in any such other company:

(10.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(11.) To enter into any agreement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(12.) To buy, own, sell, manage, improve, lease, turn to account, dispose of, acquire, and deal in any real or personal property, lands, tenements, hereditaments of all kinds, and in any rights or property which the Company may deem necessary or convenient, and to develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(13.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(14.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(15.) To increase the capital stock of the said Company, and to create and issue any part of the capital as preferred shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends and other ordinary shares as may be provided in the by-laws of the Company or otherwise determined:

(16.) To procure the Company to be registered or licensed in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or in any other company:

(17.) To distribute any of the property of the said Company in specie among the members:

(18.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause. 8256-de26

(11.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(12.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(13.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences, timber leases or limits, grants, mills, plants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and to turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(14.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend sawmills, shingle-mills, logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(15.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(16.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, operate any real and personal property, whatsoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(17.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make payments toward insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money or make grants of lands to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful objects:

(18.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(19.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(20.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payments by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company of any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(21.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(22.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(23.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(24.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(25.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(26.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(27.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(28.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys, or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(29.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by mortgage and (or) by the issue of bonds, debentures, and debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(30.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, cheques, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(31.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(32.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(33.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, so that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in no-wise restricted or limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or in the name of the Company.

(c.) To construct, maintain, improve, develop, control, and manage any buildings of worship, reading-rooms, libraries, gymnasiums, pleasure-grounds, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to its objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof:

(d.) To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(e.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(f.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To take or otherwise acquire or hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(j.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or in debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Electric Shop, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To purchase, take over, and acquire as a going concern, at a price to be agreed upon, the stock-in-trade, plant, machinery, furniture, fixtures, and goodwill of the business presently being carried on by Morris Kaplan and Frederick Hirst, in partnership, at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, under the firm-name and style of "Electric Shop":

(b.) To carry on a general trading business, and to act as general merchants and commission merchants, manufacturers and manufacturers' agents and general agents, factors, importers and exporters, and wholesale and retail dealers, and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, exchange, let or hire, and deal in all kinds and descriptions of commodities and merchandise, and particularly in connection with electrical goods, machinery apparatus, accessories of every description, including radio telegraph and telephone apparatus and parts of every description:

(c.) To carry on the business of contractors for and in connection with electrical installations of every description:

(d.) To build, construct, equip, and maintain stores, shops, buildings, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, wharves, pipes, machinery-works, factories, warehouses, and other buildings and works for the purposes of the work, or which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To borrow or raise money for any of the purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds and debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking of all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereinafter acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, and bills of sale; and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, warrants, and obligations:

(f.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can conveniently be carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for same to pay cash or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or stocks or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise deal with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(i.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(k.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, and obligations of any other company:

(l.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(m.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada or in any of the United States of America or in any other country or place:

(n.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

NOTICE.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to direct, under authority of the "Court Rules of Practice Act," R.S.B.C. 1921, chapter 221, that the rules and forms set out hereunder shall govern the practice and procedure in non-contentious business in probate in the Supreme Court and in the County Court where that Court has jurisdiction.

And that the said Rules shall come into effect on the 2nd day of January, 1925.

A. M. MANSON,

Attorney-General.

*Attorney-General's Department,
Victoria, B.C., December 23rd, 1924.*

RULES OF COURT FOR NON-CONTENTIOUS BUSINESS IN PROBATE MADE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE "COURT RULES OF PRACTICE ACT," R.S.B.C. 1924.

These Rules may be cited as "Probate Rules, 1925," and shall come into force on the 2nd day of January, 1925.

In the interpretation of these Rules reference may be had to section 2 of the "Administration Act," chapter 5, R.S.B.C. 1924.

"Non-contentious business" means the business of obtaining probate and administration where there is no contention as to the right thereto, and shall include the passing of probates and administrations in contentious cases when the contest is terminated, and all business of a non-contentious nature in matters of testacy and intestacy, not being proceedings in any action, and also the business of lodging caveats against the grant of probate or administration.

"Registrar" means the District Registrar of the Supreme Court, and shall include the Registrar of the County Court where that Court has jurisdiction.

1. Application for probate or letters of administration may be made at any Registry or District Registry of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, or in the Registry of any County Court having jurisdiction under the provisions of section 42 of the "County Courts Act."

2. Such application may be made through any solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, except in cases to which subsection (1) of section 25 of the "Administration Act" applies, when the application may be made by any person competent to take out administration.

3. The solicitor applying for grant of probate or administration shall deposit with the Registrar of the Court the original will (if any), with four copies thereof, and a petition, oath of executor or administrator, as the case may be, in the forms set out in the Appendix, or as nearly thereto as the circumstances of the case shall permit.

The applicant shall also deposit with the Registrar such further affidavits as shall, under the circumstances of the case, be required by these Rules.

4. The executor, or party applying for grant of probate or of administration, shall specify in the oath to lead grant the day on which the testator or the intestate died, and in cases where the executor or party applying for grant is able to so specify no further proof of death shall be required by the Registrar. If the fact of the death be certain but the exact date thereof be unknown, the oath shall state the date on which the testator or intestate was last seen alive and the date on which his dead body was found.

5. The Registrar may approve the documents deposited and shall in such case mark the petition as approved by him, and in the event of the Registrar refusing to approve the petition and other material filed, he shall thereupon mark the petition with his reasons for withholding approval.

6. The applicant may set down an application for hearing by the Court of the petition at any time after the Registrar shall have approved or declined to approve such petition, and shall at the time he sets down such application file in the Registry all the documents mentioned in Rule 3.

EXECUTION OF A WILL.

7. If there be no attestation clause to a will or codicil presented for probate, or if the attestation clause thereto be insufficient, the Registrar must require an affidavit from at least one of the subscribing witnesses, if they or either of them be living, to prove that the provisions of "Wills Act," chapter 271, R.S.B.C. 1924, in reference to the execution, were in fact complied with.

8. If on perusing the affidavits of both the subscribing witnesses it appear that the requirements of the Statute were not complied with, the Registrar must refuse approval of petition.

9. If on perusing the affidavit or affidavits setting forth the facts of the case it appear doubtful whether the will or codicil has been duly executed, the Registrar may refuse approval of petition.

10. If both the subscribing witnesses are dead, or if from other circumstances no affidavit can be obtained from either of them, resort must be had to other persons (if any) who may have been present at the execution of the will or codicil; but if no affidavit of any such other person can be obtained, evidence on affidavit must be procured of that fact and of the handwriting of the deceased and the subscribing witnesses, and also of any circumstances which may raise a presumption in favour of the due execution.

INTERLINEATIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

11. Interlineations and alterations are invalid unless they existed in the will at the time of its execution, or, if made afterwards, unless they have been executed and attested in the mode required by the Statute, or unless they have been rendered valid by the re-execution of the will, or by the subsequent execution of a codicil thereto.

12. When interlineations or alterations appear in the will (unless duly executed, or recited in, or otherwise identified by, the attestation clause) an affidavit or affidavits in proof of their having existed in the will before its execution must be filed, except when the alterations are merely verbal, or when they are of but small importance and are evidenced by the initials of the attesting witnesses.

ERASURES AND OBLITERATIONS.

13. Erasures and obliterations are not to prevail unless proved to have existed in the will at the time of its execution, or unless the alterations thereby effected in the will are duly executed and attested, or unless they have been rendered valid by the re-execution of the will, or by the subsequent execution of a codicil thereto. If no satisfactory evidence can be adduced as to the time when such erasures and obliterations were made, and the words erased or obliterated be not entirely effaced, but can upon inspection of the paper be ascertained, they must form part of the probate.

14. In every case of words having been erased or obliterated which might have been of importance, an affidavit must be required.

DEEDS, ETC., REFERRED TO IN A WILL OR CODICIL.

15. If a will contain a reference to any deed, paper, memorandum, or other document, of such nature as to raise a question whether it ought or ought not to form a constituent part of the will, the production of such deed, paper, memorandum, or other document must be required, with a view to ascertain whether it be entitled to probate; and, if not produced, its non-production must be accounted for.

16. No deed, paper, memorandum, or other document can form part of a will unless it was in existence at the time when the will was executed.

APPEARANCE OF THE PAPER.

17. If there are any vestiges of sealing-wax or wafers or other marks upon the testamentary papers, leading to the inference that a paper, memorandum, or other document has been annexed or attached to the same, they must be satisfactorily accounted for, or the production of such paper, memorandum, or other document must be required; and, if not produced, its non-production must be accounted for.

MARRIED WOMAN'S WILL.

18. In a grant of probate of the will of a married woman, or of the will of a widow made during coverture, or letters of administration with such wills annexed, it shall not be necessary to recite in the grant or in the oath to lead the same the separate personal estate of the testatrix or the power or authority under which the will has been or purports to have been made. The probate, or letters of administration with will annexed, in such cases shall take the form of ordinary grants of probate or letters of administration with will annexed without any exception or limitation, and issue to an executor or other person authorized in usual course of representation to take the same; a surviving husband, however, being entitled to the same in preference to the next of kin in case of a partial intestacy.

CODICILS.

19. The above Rules respecting wills apply equally to codicils.

AS TO LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

NOTICE TO OTHER NEXT OF KIN.

20. Where an administration is applied for by one or some of the next of kin only, there being another or other next of kin equally entitled thereto, the Registrar may require proof by affidavit or statutory declaration that notice of such application has been given to such other next of kin before approving petition.

LIMITED ADMINISTRATIONS.

21. Limited administrations are not to be granted unless every person entitled to the general grant has consented or renounced, or has been cited and failed to appear, except under the direction of the Court.

22. No person entitled to a general grant of administration of the personal estate and effects of the deceased will be permitted to take a limited grant, except under the direction of the Court.

ADMINISTRATIONS UNDER SEC. 9 OF "ADMINISTRATION ACT."

23. Whenever the Court, under section 9 of "Administration Act," appoints an administrator other than the person who but for that section would have been entitled to the grant, the same is to be made plainly to appear in the oath of the administrator, in the letters of administration, and in the administration bond.

GRANTS TO AN ATTORNEY.

24. In the case of a person residing out of the Province of British Columbia, administration, or administration with the will annexed, may be granted to his attorney, acting under a power of attorney.

GRANTS OF ADMINISTRATION TO GUARDIANS.

25. Grants of administration may be made to guardians of minors and infants for their use and benefit, and elections by minors of their next of kin or next friend, as the case may be, will be required; but proxies accepting such guardianships and assignments of guardians to minors will be dispensed with.

26. In the case of infants (i.e., under the age of seven years) not having a testamentary guardian, a guardian must be assigned by order of the Court, which order is to be founded on an affidavit showing that the proposed guardian is either de facto next of kin of the infants, or that their next of kin de facto has renounced his or her right to the guardianship and is consenting to the assignment of the proposed guardian, and that such proposed guardian is ready to undertake the guardianship.

27. Where there are both minors and infants, the guardian elected by the minors may act for the infants without being specially assigned to them by order of the Court, provided that the object in view is to take a grant. If the object be to renounce a grant, the guardian must be specially assigned to the infants by order of the Court.

28. In all cases where grants of administration are to be made for the use and benefit of minors or infants, the administrators are to exhibit a declaration on oath of the real and personal estate and effects of the deceased.

29. The consent of the Official Guardian shall be required to all appointments of guardians and to all grants of administration to guardians under Rules 25 to 28, and copies of all petitions and affidavits filed upon application to the Court for such appointments of guardians or grants of administration shall be served upon the Official Guardian not less than five days before the hearing of such applications by the Court.

ADMINISTRATOR'S OATH.

30. The oath of administrators, and of administrators with the will, is to be so worded as to clear off all persons having a prior right to the grant, and the grant is to show on the face of it how the prior interests have been cleared off, and the oath is to set forth, when the fact is so, that the party applying is the only next of kin, or one of the next of kin of the deceased. In all administrations of a special character the recitals in the oath and in the letters of administration must be framed in accordance with the facts of the case.

ADMINISTRATION BONDS.

31. The bond to be given upon any grant of administration shall be according to the forms in the Appendix, or in a form as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit.

32. The sureties in such bond are required in all cases to justify, and such justification shall be to an amount or amounts which in the aggregate shall equal the amount of the penalty of the bond. No Registrar shall become surety to any administration bond.

33. In all cases other than those to which subsection (1) of section 25 of the "Administration Act" applies, unless the Court shall otherwise direct, not less than two sureties shall be required to the administration bond, and the bond shall be in penalty of double the amount for which the real and personal estate of the deceased shall be sworn, unless the Court, which it may do, shall direct the same to be reduced, and the Court may also direct that more bonds than one shall be given so as to limit the liability of any surety.

GENERAL RULES.

TIME OF ISSUING GRANT.

34. No probate or letters of administration with the will annexed shall issue until after the lapse of seven days from the death of the deceased, unless under the direction of the Court.

35. No letters of administration shall issue until after the lapse of fourteen days from the death of the deceased, unless under the direction of the Court.

36. In every case where probate or administration is, for the first time, applied for after the lapse of three years from the death of the deceased, the reason of the delay is to be certified to the Registrar. Should the certificate be unsatisfactory, the Registrar is to require such proof of the alleged cause of delay as he may see fit.

IDENTITY OF PARTIES.

37. The Registrar may, in cases where he deems it necessary, require proof, in addition to the oath of the executor or administrator, of the identity of the deceased, or of the party applying for the grant.

PROOF OF SEARCH FOR WILL.

38. Upon every application for grant of administration it must be shown that search for will or testamentary paper has been made in all places where the deceased usually kept his papers, and in his depositories. The affidavit should be made by the applicant, but the proof may, with the Court's or the Registrar's consent, be made otherwise.

39. No Registrar shall be entitled to require an executor, who swears in the oath of executor that the will presented for probate is the last will and testament of the deceased, to prove by affidavit that search has been made for a later will, but this Rule shall not apply where the date of the will presented for probate is antecedent to the date of the death of the testator for a longer period than five years.

TESTAMENTARY PAPERS TO BE MARKED.

40. Every will, copy of a will, or other testamentary paper, to which an executor or administrator with the will is sworn, must be marked by such executor or administrator and by the person before whom he is sworn.

RENUNCIATIONS.

41. No person who renounced probate of a will or letters of administration of the personal estate and effects of a deceased person in one character is to be allowed to take a representation to the same deceased in another character.

CAVEATS.

42. Any person intending to oppose the issue of a grant of probate or letters of administration shall enter a caveat.

43. Caveats may be lodged in any Registry of the Court, and as many copies of every caveat shall be furnished to the Registrar as may be required by him to be forwarded to each of the other Registries of the Court.

44. The party entering a caveat must declare therein the nature of his interest in the property of the deceased, and state generally the grounds upon which he enters such caveat, and the same shall be signed by the party, or by his solicitor on his behalf, and the proper place mentioned as the address of the party or of his solicitor entering the caveat; and no caveat shall have any force or effect unless the requirements of this Rule be in substance complied with.

45. A caveat shall bear date on the day it is entered, and shall remain in force for the space of six months only, and then expire and be of no effect, but caveats may, subject to the order of the Court or Judge, be renewed from time to time.

46. No caveat shall affect any grant made on the day on which the caveat is entered unless notice of such caveat has been received prior to the grant passing the seal.

47. All caveats shall be warned from the Registry in which such caveats have been lodged. The warning is to be left at the place mentioned in the caveat as the address of the person who entered it, or of his solicitor.

48. It shall be sufficient for the warning of the caveat that the Registrar of the Court in which application for grant is made send by public post, prepaid and registered, a warning signed by himself, bearing the seal of the Court, and directed to the person who entered it or to his solicitor, if signed by a solicitor, at the address mentioned in it.

49. The warning to a caveat shall state the name and interest of the party on whose behalf the same is issued, and if such person claims under a will or codicil, shall also state the date of such will or codicil, and shall contain an address, within one mile of the Registry, at which any notice requiring service may be left. The form of warning may be supplied in the Registry.

50. Before any citation is signed by a Registrar, a caveat shall be entered against any grant being made in respect of the estate and effects of the deceased to which such citation relates.

51. In order to clear off a caveat when no appearance has been entered to a warning duly served, an affidavit of the service of the warning, stating the manner of service, and an affidavit of search for appearance and of non-appearance, shall be filed.

CITATIONS.

52. No citation shall issue under seal of the Court until an affidavit, in verification of the averments it contains, has been filed in the Registry.

53. Citations are to be served personally when that can be done. Personal service shall be effected by leaving a true copy of the citation with the party cited, and showing him the original, if required by him so to do.

54. Citations and other instruments which cannot be served personally shall be served in such manner as the Court shall direct.

BLIND TESTATORS.

55. The Registrar shall not approve any petition for grant of probate or administration with the will annexed of any blind or obviously illiterate or ignorant persons unless they have previously satisfied themselves that the said will was read over to the testator before its execution, or that the testator had at such time a knowledge of its contents.

TIME FOR APPEARANCE.

56. The time fixed by a warning or citation for entering an appearance or by a subpoena to bring in a testamentary paper shall in all cases be exclusive of Sundays, Christmas Day, and other statutory holidays.

TAXATION OF COSTS.

57. The bill of costs of any solicitor for any fees, charges, or disbursements in respect of any business transacted in probate proceedings or in connection therewith, whether contentious or otherwise, or any matters connected therewith, shall as well between solicitor and client as between party and party be subject to taxation by the Registrar, and any bill of costs may be referred to the Registrar for taxation and no special order of the Court shall be required for the purpose.

58. The bill of costs of any solicitor will be taxed on his application, after sufficient notice given to the person or persons liable for the payment thereof, or on the application of such person or persons, after sufficient notice given to the practitioner, and the Registrar shall decide in each case what may be a sufficient notice.

59. When an appointment has been made by a Registrar to tax a bill, the Registrar may proceed to tax the same after the expiration of a quarter of an hour, notwithstanding the absence of either party, or his agent, provided he be satisfied that the absent party has had due notice of the appointment for taxation.

60. Costs in all probate matters shall be taxed as between solicitor and client unless the Court otherwise directs, and the tariff of costs from time to time in force under the Rules of the Supreme Court of British Columbia shall apply to all taxations under these Rules.

61. If more than one-sixth is deducted from any bill of costs taxed as between practitioner and client, no costs incurred in the taxation thereof shall be allowed as part of such bill.

62. The certificate of the Registrar of the amount at which such bill is taxed shall be subject to appeal to the Court or to any Judge in Chambers, and the provisions of Order 65, Rule 27, subsections (41) and (42), of the Rules of the Supreme Court of British Columbia shall apply to any review of taxation.

63. In cases where the real or personal estate does not exceed the sum of $400, the cost of obtaining probate or letters of administration shall not exceed the sum of $25.

64. All rules, orders, and instructions, and the existing practice of the Court with respect to non-contentious business, shall, so far as the circumstances of the case will allow, be applicable to grants of probate and administration made under the authority of the "Land Registry Act" (chapter 26, 1921).

FOREIGN WILLS.

65. Where any grant of probate or letters of administration has been made by any Court of competent jurisdiction outside the Province of British Columbia, and such grant cannot be resealed under the provisions of the "Probates Recognition Act," a grant of administration, or administration with the will annexed, limited to the estate of the deceased situate within the Province, may be granted to the attorney of any executor or administrator appointed by such foreign Court, acting under a power of attorney.

66. Copies of foreign wills to be annexed to grants of administration shall be certified under the seal of the Court out of which letters probate have been granted.

RULES FOR RESEALING PROBATES AND GRANTS OF ADMINISTRATION UNDER "PROBATES RECOGNITION ACT," CHAP. 203, R.S.B.C. 1924.

67. Application to reseal a grant of probate or letters of administration, or copy thereof, under the "Probates Recognition Act," may be made in any Registry or District Registry of any Court having jurisdiction in matters of probate by the executor or administrator, or the attorney (lawfully authorized for the purpose) of such executor or administrator.

68. The solicitor applying for an order for resealing shall deposit with the Registrar of the Court the grant of probate or letters of administration, or a duplicate or certified copy thereof under subsection (2) of section 4 of the "Probates Recognition Act," with two copies thereof and a petition, and at the same time shall deposit with the Registrar an affidavit of value and relationship in the form provided by the "Succession Duty Act," which affidavit shall be sworn in duplicate.

69. Such petition shall be accompanied by an oath of the executor, administrator, or attorney, in the form in the Appendix, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will allow.

70. In every case, and especially when the domicile of the deceased at the time of death as sworn to in the affidavit differs from that suggested by the description in the grant, the Registrar may require further evidence as to domicile.

71. If it should appear that the deceased was not at the time of death domiciled within the jurisdiction of the Court from which the grant issued, the Registrar shall mark the petition accordingly.

72. Rules 5 and 6 shall apply to all applications for resealing.

73. The grant (or copy grant) to be sealed and the copy to be deposited in the Registry must include copies of all testamentary papers admitted to probate.

74. Special, or limited, or temporary grants are not to be sealed except by order of the Court.

75. Notice of the sealing in the Province of British Columbia of a grant is to be sent to the Court from which the grant issued.

76. When intimation has been received of the resealing of a British Columbia grant, notice of the revocation of or any alteration in such grant is to be sent to the Court by whose authority such grant was resealed.

REMUNERATION AND PAYING OF ACCOUNTS.

77. Applications to the Court for passing of accounts and remuneration shall be made to the Court by way of petition in accordance with Form 10, but the Court shall not direct the accounts to be passed by the Registrar until the application for remuneration is dealt with.

THE COURT OF APPEAL RULES, 1924.

1. These Rules may be cited as "The Court of Appeal Rules, 1924," and shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

2. The "Interpretation Act" shall apply to these Rules, and the several words hereinafter mentioned shall have the following meanings:—

"Judge" means a Justice of Appeal:

"Rules" shall include forms:

"The Court" means the Court of Appeal:

"The Registrar" means the Registrar of the Court of Appeal at the place where the appeal is set down for hearing.

APPEAL TO BE REHEARING ON NOTICE.

3. All appeals to the Court shall be by way of rehearing and shall be brought by notice of appeal in a summary way. If the defendant desires to appeal from part only of the judgment or order, he shall specify such part, and the notice of appeal shall set out the grounds of appeal.

SERVICE OF NOTICE OF APPEAL.

4. The notice of appeal shall be served upon all parties directly affected by the appeal, and it shall not be necessary to serve parties not so affected; but the Court may direct notice of the appeal to be served on all or any parties to the action or other proceeding, or upon any person not a party, and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may be just, and may give such judgment and make such order as might have been given or made if the persons served with such notice had been originally parties. Any notice of appeal may be amended at any time as the Court may think fit.

POWER OF COURT TO AMEND.

5. The Court shall have all the powers and duties as to amendment and otherwise of the Court or Judge appealed from, together with full discretionary power to receive further evidence upon questions of fact, such evidence to be either by oral examination in Court, by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an examiner or commissioner. Such further evidence may be given without special leave upon interlocutory applications, or in any case as to matters which have occurred after the date of the decision from which the appeal is brought. Upon appeals from a judgment after trial or hearing of any cause or matter upon the merits, such further evidence (save as to matters subsequent as aforesaid) shall be admitted on special grounds only, and not without special leave of the Court. The Court shall have power to draw inferences of fact and to give any judgment and make any order which ought to have been made, and to make such further or other order as the case may require. The powers aforesaid may be exercised by the Court, notwithstanding that part only of the decision may have been appealed from, and such powers shall be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the decision.

POWER TO ORDER NEW TRIAL.

6. If upon the hearing of an appeal it shall appear to the Court that a new trial ought to be had, it shall be lawful for the said Court, if it shall think fit, to order that the verdict and judgment shall be set aside and that a new trial shall be had.

EXCESSIVE DAMAGES.

7. Where excessive damages have been awarded by a jury, if the Court is of the opinion that the verdict is not otherwise unreasonable, it may reduce the damages without the consent of either party instead of ordering a new trial.

NOTICE OF APPEAL BY RESPONDENT.

8. It shall not, under any circumstances, be necessary for a respondent to give notice of motion by way of cross-appeal, but if a respondent intends, upon the hearing of the appeal, to contend that the decision of the Court or Judge appealed from should be varied, he shall within the time specified in the next Rule, or such time as may be prescribed by special order, give notice of such intention to any parties who may be affected by such contention. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers conferred by the "Court of Appeal Act" upon the Court, but may, in the discretion of the Court, be ground for an adjournment of the appeal or for a special order as to costs.

RESPONDENT TO GIVE NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO JURISDICTION.

9. Where a respondent intends to take objection to the jurisdiction of the Court to hear the appeal, he shall give to the appellant at least one clear day's notice thereof before the appeal comes to be heard, and if he shall fail to do so the Court shall be at liberty to make such order as to costs of the objection as to it may seem meet.

LENGTH OF NOTICE BY RESPONDENT.

10. Subject to any special order which may be made, notice by a respondent under the last preceding Rule shall in the case of any appeal from a final judgment be an eight days' notice, and in the case of an appeal from an interlocutory order a two days' notice.

ENTRY OF APPEALS.

11. The party appealing from a judgment or order shall leave with the Registrar a copy of the notice of appeal to be filed, together with a præcipe for hearing the appeal, two days before the day for hearing, and the officer shall thereupon set down the appeal to be heard, and the party appealing shall at the time of the filing of the præcipe deliver to the Registrar twelve copies of the Appeal-book, if printed; if written, six copies.

PREPARATION OF APPEAL-BOOKS.

12. The title page shall show the name of the Court and Judge appealed from, and the style of cause, putting the plaintiff's name first, and stating the appellant and respondent. Name of solicitors, counsel, and agents shall also be added.

Index should be at the beginning of the case, and show:—

- (a.) The date of commencement of the action or other proceeding:
- (b.) Each pleading, order, or entry, with its date:
- (c.) Each witness by name:
- (d.) Each exhibit or other document, with its description and date.

N.B.—Documentary evidence shall be printed in the Appeal-book in chronological order and in the index in numerical order.

The Registrar shall not accept any Appeal-books (if typewritten) unless at least two of the said Appeal-books are original, and two are first and the others clear carbon copies, and all are paged alike and indexed. Pages shall be printed on the right-hand side.

The pages shall be numbered on the upper right-hand corner, and marginal numbers given of every tenth line on each page, but numbering not to run on through the book.

Unless some change has been made in the style of cause, the title page will be taken as the style of cause on each pleading, proceeding, or order.

The surname of the witness whose evidence it is shall be put at the top of each page, immediately under or alongside of the pagination number, and the words "discovery," "in chief," "cross-exam.," or "re-exam.," as the case may be, added immediately under the same.

When reasons for judgment are given, the name of the Judge whose reasons they are shall be placed at the top of each page, immediately under or alongside of the pagination number, thus: "Henry, J.," or, if a Judge of the County Court, "Henry, Co. J."

When two exhibits are almost identical, unless there is a point turning on the difference, it is unnecessary to repeat in the second all that occurs in the first; e.g., the memorandum of association having been inserted, it would be unnecessary to insert at full length the certificate of the Registrar of Companies.

If counsel's arguments on admission or rejection of evidence are inserted in the Appeal-book, it will be at the risk of being disallowed on taxation.

Useless inventories should be omitted; e.g., in bills of sale where nothing turns upon the description of the articles.

Exact copies of cheques, notes, bills, etc., are not always necessary, and it shall be generally sufficient to state briefly their effect unless something turns upon the document itself. Nor, in like manner, shall it always be necessary to set out formal parts of writs of summons or execution, or original pleadings for which amendments have been substituted.

13. The Registrar of the Court appealed from, as well as the parties and their legal agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Appeal-book all documents and notes of evidence that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal or necessary for its decision, and generally to reduce the bulk of the Appeal-book as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Appeal-book.

14. Where in the course of the preparation of an Appeal-book one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon it being included, the Appeal-book, as finally prepared, shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document or notes of evidence, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the same was objected to.

APPEAL FROM REFUSAL OF EX PARTE APPLICATIONS.

15. Where an ex parte application has been refused by the Court or Judge appealed from, an application for similar purpose may be made to the Court ex parte within four days from the date of such refusal, or within such enlarged time as the Court appealed from or of the Court may allow.

QUESTION OF FACT.

16. When any question of fact is involved in an appeal, the evidence taken in the Court appealed from bearing on such question shall, subject to any special order of any Act, be brought before the Court as follows:—

- (a.) As to any evidence taken by affidavit, by the production of true copies of the affidavit: Provided that the Court may order the originals to be produced by the Registrar of the Court appealed from:
- (b.) As to any evidence given orally (unless taken by an official stenographer), by the production of five copies of the notes of the Judge appealed from, or such other materials as the Court may deem expedient, and if taken by official stenographer, then by his notes:
- (c.) Where, on appeal to the Court, oral evidence taken or rulings made in the Court appealed from has or have to be considered, and a report of the same has not been made by an official stenographer, or, if made, cannot be procured, it shall be the duty of the appellant, or of his solicitor, to apply to the Judge appealed from for a copy of his notes, for the use of the Court, and in case default is made in this respect, and the hearing of the appeal has, in consequence, to be adjourned, the appellant shall be liable for the costs occasioned by the adjournment, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Court for special reasons.

EVIDENCE AS TO DIRECTION OF JUDGE TO JURY.

17. Subject to the "Supreme Court Act" and the "Court of Appeal Act," if, upon the hearing of an appeal, a question arise as to the ruling or direction to a jury of the Judge appealed from, the Court shall have regard to verified notes or other evidence, and to such other materials as the Court may deem expedient.

INTERLOCUTORY ORDER NOT TO PREJUDICE APPEAL.

18. No interlocutory order or rule from which there has been no appeal shall operate so as to bar or prejudice the Court from giving such decision upon the appeal as may be just.

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS ON APPEAL.

19. An appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution or of proceedings under the decision appealed from, except so far as the Court or Judge appealed from, or the Court, may order; and no intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated, except so far as the Court or Judge appealed from may direct.

APPLICATION IN FIRST INSTANCE TO COURT APPEALED FROM.

20. Wherever under these Rules an application may be made either to the Court or Judge appealed from or to the Court of Appeal, it shall be made in the first instance to the Court or Judge appealed from.

APPLICATION TO BE BY MOTION.

21. Every application to a Judge shall be by motion on two clear days' notice unless a Judge shall give special leave to give a shorter notice.

NOTICE RE "SPECIAL SURVEYS ACT."

In the Matter of the "Special Surveys Act," R.S. B.C. 1924, Chap. 244; and in the Matter of the Special Survey of Block 1, Map 1234, Section 28, Lake District, Victoria Land Registration District.

NOTICE is hereby given of the plan of the special survey of Block 1, Map 1234, Section 28, Lake District, which was directed to be specially surveyed by the order of the undersigned, dated the 10th day of October, 1923, for the purpose of correcting any error or supposed error in respect of any existing survey or plan concerning the lands referred to, or for adjusting any discrepancy between the occupation of any parcel of the land and any registered subdivision plan or other plan or description under which the land is held, and of plotting land not before subdivided and of showing parcels of land of which the parcels are not shown on any registered subdivision plan, or for any other purpose mentioned in section 3 of the said Act, accompanied by the report of the surveyor, has been deposited with the undersigned and will be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for approval in pursuance of the said Act.

In accordance with the said Act, I hereby appoint Monday, the 2nd day of February, 1925, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Land Registry Office, Bastion Square, City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, as the time and place for the hearing of any complaint against the survey plan or report, or claim for compensation which may be made by any persons interested in the land affected by the survey.

The said Act provides that any person desiring to complain against the special survey plan or report or to claim compensation shall, not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the hearing, deliver or cause to be delivered to the undersigned by mail or otherwise a written statement setting forth the nature and grounds of his complaint.

Dated at the City of Victoria in the said Province this day of December, 1924.

A. M. MANSON,
Attorney-General.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. No. 2134.

CERTIFIED COPY OF A MINUTE OF A MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL, ON THE 9TH DECEMBER, 1924.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 29th November, 1924, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that during the years 1910 and 1911 Quarrying Leases Nos. 84, 89, 90, and 236, comprising locations situated in the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia, were issued under the provisions of the regulations in that behalf, which were approved by Order in Council dated the 13th May, 1910, and that assignments of these leases in favour of the Western Canada Lime Company, Limited, of New Westminster, were subsequently accepted and registered on the 31st day of January, 1916.

On the 31st July, 1920, Miscellaneous Quarrying Lease No. 1 was issued in favour of the same company, under the authority of an Order in Council dated the 5th January, 1920, and this lease conveyed the right to recover a deposit of disintegrated lime or marl from the available portion of the bed of Cheam Lake, in the said Province.

These several leases provided for the payment of an annual rental and for cancellation of the lease for default in payment of such rental. As the lessees failed to pay the rental provided for, the several leases were cancelled in the records of the Department of the Interior on the 31st day of March, 1924.

Representations have now been made to the Department that there is a valuable plant installed upon the locations in question; that the lessee company admit negligence on its part for failure to pay the rental when due; that several large orders affecting the products of these locations have recently been obtained; and that the company desires to be reinstated in the rights which it formerly had to the locations described in the said leases.

As payment has now been made of all arrears of rental and interest due the Crown in connection with the locations in question, and as no other applications have been received for the same rights, the Minister recommends that he be authorized to reinstate the lessee company in the rights which it formerly had to the locations described in Quarrying Leases Nos. 84, 89, 90, and 236, also the rights formerly conveyed in Miscellaneous Quarrying Lease No. 1, above referred to.

The Committee concur in the foregoing recommendation and submit the same for approval.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE.

Clerk of the Privy Council.

The Minister of the Interior.

(b.) To mine, quarry, smelt, refine, dress, amalgamate, and prepare for market ore, metal, and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(c.) To buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in metals, minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions, and things capable of being used in connection with mining operations or required by workmen and others employed by the Company:

(d.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, control, and superintend any roads, ways, branches or sidings, steamboats, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, manufactories, warehouses, mills, concentrators, crushing-works, hydraulic works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(f.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(g.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company (or its predecessors in business), or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(h.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(i.) Upon any issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company, to employ brokers, commission agents, and underwriters, and to provide for the remuneration of such persons for their services by payment in cash or, with the approval of the shareholders, by the issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company, or by the granting of options to take the same or in any other manner:

(j.) To pay out of the funds of the Company the costs of and incidental to the formation and organization of the Company:

(k.) To carry on any other business (whether mining or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(l.) To issue and allot, as fully paid up, shares of the Company hereby incorporated in payment or part payment of any property, movable or immovable, property rights, lease, business, franchise, undertaking, powers, privileges, licence, concession, stock, bonds and debentures, or other property rights which it may lawfully acquire by virtue of the powers hereby granted, or to pay for same or any part thereof in bonds or debentures of this Company:

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any trade-marks, patents, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention or formula which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(o.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(p.) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(s.) To distribute among the shareholders of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, or securities belonging to the Company or which the Company may have the power to dispose of:

(t.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(u.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(w.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.
